

Thomas J. Golonka
Chair
Appointed: January 2016
Thomas.Golonka@partner.vermont.gov

Thomas J. Golonka is a managing partner with the investment firm of Silverlake Wealth Management in Williston and Montpelier, Vermont. Prior to joining Silverlake in 2005, Mr. Golonka was with Wells Fargo Financial Network and the predecessor organizations; Wachovia Securities and First Albany Corporation for 12 years. Tom specializes in portfolio management and advanced planning strategies for high-net-worth individuals and organizations and is a CFA® charterholder as well as a CFP™ professional.

Mr. Golonka is currently Chair of the Vermont Pension Investment Commission (VPIC) and Trustee of the University of Vermont Health Network and its affiliate board for Central Vermont Medical Center. He currently serves as Chair of the investment committee for UVM Health Network.

Previously, Tom served as a City Councilor for Montpelier, Vermont for 12 years, Chair of the Central Vermont Public Safety Authority, Chair of the Central Vermont Catholic School board, Montpelier Rotary President and board member, and board member for the Kellogg Hubbard Library in Montpelier. He holds a BA from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from Union College. Tom resides in Montpelier with his wife, Cyndy Bashara Golonka, and their five children: Chloe, Kelsey, Joshua, Gregory and Kenzie.