Jim Salsgiver is the VPIC Commissioner appointed by the Vermont School Boards Association (VSBA). Jim has been a member of the VSBA Board since 2018, and a school board member since 2008. He is currently the Chair of the Bennington-Rutland Supervisory Union and a Board Member of the Taconic and Green Regional School District.

The VSBA Board chose Jim to represent the VSBA on the Vermont Pension Investment Commission on June 9, 2021. He joined the Commission starting with its June 22, 2021 meeting. Jim's background is finance. He graduated with a BS Economics from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, and worked for several firms in the finance field. Jim began his career in commercial banking in New York, and worked for an investment bank in New York. Jim developed a specialty in credit risk management, and later moved to become the Chief Credit Officer at a reinsurance company that developed a global business in the financial markets. In that role, Jim developed and managed a credit team supporting the reinsurer's investment activities and a separate team to manage credit risk at the financial products company. Jim moved his family to Vermont in 2003. He is involved in his communities in a number of ways – through his school board work, as a member of his Town Select Board, as a Board member and Treasurer of his regional EMS provider and as a member of his Town Energy Committee.
